A prominent figure in international dressage competition, Mr. Williams' career highlights include: an unprecedented three-time Dressage at Devon Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle winner, 2005 USEF/Collecting Gaits National Grand Prix Champion, team bronze Nations Cup at CHIO Aachen, 5th at the 2003 World Cup in Sweden, USDF Grand Prix and Grand Prix Freestyle Horse of the Year. Rocher was named Dressage Horse of the Year by the Chronicle of the Horse in 2005 and Mr. Williams was co-winner of the USEF William Steinkraus Equestrian of Honor Award that same year.

Known for his integrity and quiet, classical teaching style, Williams is a popular and much sought after clinician who has brought horses and riders to success at all levels. His depth of knowledge caters to both amateurs and professionals alike. His accomplishments and training techniques have been featured in many publications. A firm believer in giving back to the community, he is active as the President of United States Dressage Federation, a member of the United States Equestrian Federation Dressage Committee, Chair of the USEF High Performance Eligible Athlete Committee, and is a member of the USEF High Performance Dressage Committee. He was a contributing author to the USDF's booklet on arena footing, Underfoot.

In 2015 Mr. Williams was named to the position of National Youth Coach by the USEF and appointed to the FEI Dressage Technical Committee in 2016.
